THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 20

Trouble For the Tourist.
There is a story on record of three Irishmen rushing away from the race meeting at Punchestown to catch a train back to Dublin. At the moment a train from a long distance pulled up at the station, and the three men scrambled in. In the carriage was seated one other passenger. As soon as they had regained their breath one said:

"Pat, have you got th' tickets?"
"What tickets? I've got me loife!
I thought I'd have lost that gettin' in th' train. Have you got 'em, Moike?"
"O! Begorrah, I haven't!"
"Oh, we're all done for, thin!" said the third. They'll charge us right from th' other side of Ireland."

The old gentleman looked over his newspaper and said:
"You are quite safe, gentlemen. Wait till we get to th' next station." As soon as the train pulled up and the little gentleman jumped out and came back with three first class tickets.
Handing them to the astonished strangers, he said: "Whist! I'll tell you how I did it! I went along th' train.
"Tickets, please; tickets, please!" I called, and these belong to three Saxon tourists in another carriage."

Banks on the Lookout.
A merchant in a large city allowed his name to be posted in his club three times for nonpayment of dues. A few days after the last posting he applied to his bank for a loan. When the application came up to the bank's credit man—that newest of a bank's important officials—he pulled out the customer's history card.

The latest entry was one typewritten sentence, "Does not pay his club dues; three times delinquent." The loan was refused. The merchant was either careless, near broke or unappreciative of his credit standing. Any of these reasons looked bad to the banker.
Business men do not realize how closely their banks watch them—how much the banks are bound to know about their affairs, how much seemingly small things in their daily lives affect credit, and big things that they sometimes want to conceal too.—System Magazine.

Eddystone Island.
The smallest inhabited island in the world is that on which the Eddystone lighthouse stands. At low water it is thirty feet in diameter. At high water the lighthouse, whose diameter at the base is eight and three-fourths feet, completely covers it. It is inhabited by three persons. It lies nine miles off the Cornish coast and fourteen miles southeast of Plymouth breakwater.
Flatholme, an island in the British channel, is only a mile and a half in circumference, but, consisting mostly of rich pasture lands, supports a farmhouse besides the lighthouse, with a revolving light 150 feet above the sea.
There are about 100,000 islands, large and small, scattered over the oceans.
America alone has 5,500 around its coasts. There are 365 in the bay of Rio Janeiro, 16,000 between Madagascar and India and some 1,200 off the eastern coast of Australia between its mainland and New Guinea.

Jenny Lind and the Trill.
Jenny Lind after years of steady practice believed that the much coveted trill was for her an impossibility.
She practiced hours a day, but was unable to accomplish the feat. One day, thoroughly discouraged, she was sitting in her garden when all at once she looked up into a tree. Above her a bird was trilling. She at once went to her piano and through some magic or power of imitation began the trill and from that day never had any further difficulty.

Losing His Senses.
A mischievous boy, having got possession of his grandfather's spectacles, privately took out the glasses. When the old gentleman put them on, finding he could not see, he exclaimed: "Mercy on me! I've lost my sight!" But, thinking the impediment to vision might be the dirtiness of the glasses, he took them off to wipe them, when, not feeling them, he still more frightened, cried out: "Why, what's come now?
I've lost my feeling too!"—London Ideas.

An Ancient House.
The ancient Romans had a catapult that could hurl rocks more than a mile.
"Now I understand it."
"What?"
My landlord told me the house was a stone's throw from the depot. He must have had it on his hands since the time of the Caesars.

A Complex Rest Cure.
"Bliggins is a very vociferous person."
"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne, "but I don't blame him. The way a man of his mentality rests his nerves is by talking so loud he can't hear himself think."—Washington Star.

Center of Toughness.
Inquiring Tourist—Would you call this a tough town? Stray Native—Tough? Say, stranger, when we have old home week here detectives from all over the country come and pick out just who they want.—Puck.

Conscience.
Conscience is not an indicator of what is right. That is the province of wisdom based on knowledge. Conscience is the divine imperative impressing upon us to do what we believe to be right.

A whole lot of people never blame the fool for parting from his money until after it is all gone.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Considers no poison. Sold by W. F. Freigh-ton and Richard Gibson.

PERFECTION
SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless It gives just as much heat as you desire. It is safe, odorless and smokeless.

It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. Burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and can always be easily unscrewed for reworking.

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. Filler-cap does not need to be screwed down, but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong and durable, well-made, built for service and yet light and ornamental. It has a cool handle and a damper top.
